NATIONAL REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS FOR PRESIDENT:

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: WILLIAM A. WHEELER,

"THE day may yet come when the ballot "in the hands of the freedmen will pre-"serve the jewel of liberty to the diadem "of the Republic."-Abraham Lincoln.

VOTE for the man whom the office sough and not for him who sought the office. Tilden bought his nomination. The nomination of Hayes came to him without his asking. It is the design in Virginia cities to vote the negro line so slowly to-morrow that at sunset hundreds will be left voiceless. This is one of the regular games of the chivalrie Domocracy. THE bis west privilege of the American citizen is the casting of his ballot. Let no man omit the assertion of this privilege tomorrow was can reach the spot where it can legally be indulated. LET EVERY Republican remember that a full vote all over the North is the assurance of a Republican victory, and spare no effort to attain this end. Vote early yourself and see that your neighbors do likewise. THE students of Yale college show their appreciation of Professor Sumner's political judgment and sagacity by voting 392 for Hayes to 101 for Tilden. The influence of the Professor seems to be at a discount OUR special telegram from North Caroline assures us that the electoral vote of the old North State is safe for Hayes and Wheeler, and that Judge Settle will beat Vance for Governor by 15,000. Good enough

HON, ZACH, CHANDLER'S address on the Southern claims letter of Mr. Tilden puts a complete extinguisher on that piece of Jesuitical sophistry. He explains exactly how the Democrate propose to "whip the devil around the stump."

IT IS ESTIMATED that there are twentytwo thousand gamblers and thieves in the city of New York. This fraternity unanimously cry aloud for Tilden and reform. The facts are that Tilden draws his main support from the Ku-Klux villains of the South and the sporting and thieving fraternity of the North. How can you better judge of a candidate than from the characteristics of his followers?

district of Massachusetts afford the most gratifying evidence that Gen. Butler will be returned by about 1,200 majority, nothwithstanding the defection of Judge Hoar. It is gratifying to know that the people of the Middlesex district appreciate the valuable services of Gen. Butler, and will confer the benefit of them during the next two years upon the nation.

TILDEN defends his conduct as counsel in advising his clients to purchase Congressional legislation and to attempt to bribe a Supreme Court judge. He says he thinks he would have been derelict in his duty to his clients had he not given this advice, and that he would repeat the performance under like circumstances. Is this a proper code of political morals to govern the Executive of this great nation?

SAMUEL J. TILDEN has been and is at present the ally and companion of burglars, gamblers and thieves. Rutherford B. Hayes is a citizen of spotless antecedents, who imperiled life and wears scars received in defense of the nation's honor. On Tuesday next the citizens of the Re public must decide which of these two men shall be entrusted for the next four years with the destinies of the Republic.

PRIVATE advices indicate the re-election of Mr. Hoskins in the Batavia district, New York, over his Democratic topponent and the Flagler bolt. Western New York is fairly ablaze with enthusiasm for Haves and Wheeler, and there is no doubt that the returns from west of "Cayuga bridge" will wipe out all the Democratic majorities of the eastern Democratic strongholds, and roll up the old-time Republican mafority in the State.

THE latest Democratic boast comes in the form of a manifesto from the artful, slippery Hewitt, chairman of the National Committee. The document informs the followers of Uncle Sammy that "the evidence is all in," and that "the result is no longer doubtful;" yet the committee is only warranted in "feeling" that "the day of redemption draws nigh," notwithstanding its assertion that "the evidence is all in." The little game of 'bluff' in which the Democrats have been indulging is only strong in words. When called upon to "put up" they find refuge in "shut up."

THE Democrats always look upon a rainy, dismal day as greatly to their advantage. Aside from the naturalness of the comparison between the weather and the party, there is too much truth generally in the claim. There are thousands of Republicans who stay from the polls if the weather is disagreeable, but it is to be hoped that the dark and gloomy prospects to the country in the event of Tilden's election will induce them, if necessary, to brave one day's disagreeable weather to save the country from many dark days. Let the seal of condomnation be placed emphatically on the old tebel party now endeavor ing to gain centrol by false pretensions. IP THE arts of the gamester could carry an election in this country there would be but little doubt of Tilden's election next Tuesday. He secured his nomination at St. Louis through the efforts of John Mor rissey. He is now, quite appropriately through the same agency, establishing pools in all the large cities for the sole purpose of selling himself high in order to win the votes of the fence men. These pool sales afford no reliable criterion by which to judge of results. They are i simple game of bluff-a balt to catch gudgeons with. Honorable and moral men and good citizens seldom speculate in them. The Associated Press would not advertise them but for that the concern has been sold out to Tilden. True Republicans cannot be ir fluenced by such black-legging tricks. They pass them by as they would the antics of curb-stone brokers in Wall street. This game of bluff will add largely to the vote for Hayes on Tuesday next by disgusting all honorable men who will hasten to leave the gamester's party.

UNDER THE act of Congress of February 27, 1865, prevision was made for the settle ment of accounts between the United States and the State of Tennessee, regarding property sold the Edgefield and Kentucky and Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville railroads, excluding any claim for use, occupation and damage during the war. Governor Porter declined to make such settlement, and secured the introduction of a bill into the House, at the last session of Congress, providing for the payment, on the part of the United States, for use, occupation and damage done said roads. The claim of the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville road alone, as stated by the Democratic State government, amounted to over $800,000. And now Governor Porter pretends that he cordially indorses the sentiments of Tilden's late letter repudiating Southern claims. How he loves the "solid South," to be sure.

LABOR is the king of this country. La borers pay the taxes. The sons of toil support the Government. Monopolies combine the strength of capital to wrest from labor the lion's share of its fruits. Tilden is the counsel and advocate of monopolies, and the foe of labor and laborers. And yet Tilden appears to have bought some of the leaders of the labor organization in New York, hoping thereby to secure the votes of all its members. In this, however, he has counted without his host. The seller cannot deliver his goods. The president of the National Labor Council, Col. Albert E. Redstone, advises all labor councils to vote the Republican in preference to the Democratic ticket. He holds that Hayes is the friend of the laborer, and independent of that it would be bad policy for the organization to aid in placing the Democratic party in power, for the reason that it might in four years so fortify itself as to preclude the labor organizations from winning the next heat. He contends that in 1880 the Democratic party, if success ful in obtaining the control of the Government now, would be much harder to dis lodge than the Republicans. He also thinks the Democratic policy would be the most oppressive of labor, and in this he is great baste to condemn the quartering of troops within the borders of the State of Virginia. A loyal people are never afraid of the presence of the military in their midst. No objection has ever been made to the quartering of Government troops in any portion of the North. If no evil-doing were contemplated in Virginia there would be no squirming at the presence of troops. The fact is that there has not been a free and fair election in the cities of Richmond, Norfolk or Petersburg during the past four years, and Gov. Kemper knows it. He also knows that Mr. Platt was chested out of his seat at the last session of Congress by fraud and violence. And yet he pretends that he, as Governor, is able to protect all voters in their guaranteed rights. If he is, he has never done so since he has occupied the executive chair. He knows that Hinton was never honestly elected Mayor of Petersburg. He knows that he was not honestly elected State Senator from the Dinwiddie district. And he knows that he cannot honestly be elected to Congress from the Fourth Congressional district, it any opportunity is afforded for a free expression of conjuion at the ballot box. has never done so since he has occupied the pression of opinion at the ballot box. Yet in the face of all this knowledge he issues his bombastic voted to pay for school-houses, churches proclamation accusing the President of a flagrant violation of the guaranteed rights of a sovereign State, because he has simply and ministerially performed such duties as are required of him by his oath to support the Constitution and execute the laws. Governor Kemper and other Southern Governors may as well be brought to understand right now that the United States is bound to enforce the constitutional amendments equally with other portions of the organic law. If this requires armed invasion of these States, it may as well

come now as later. THE DEMOCRATIC METHOD IN MISSIS-

The following letter, dated October 27, 1876, from Claiborne county, Mississippi, from a former slave there to his fellow forme slave now living here, will show the modus operandi of the peaceful election about to take place in that State. It is believed to be a specimen of the purpose of the ex-rebels throughout the whole South, which they will accomplish to-morrow: MR. -: Dear Sir: I now take the please ure of writing you a few lines to inform you of my health. I am well at the present time, thanks be to God. We are all very anxious thanks be to God. We are all very anxious to hear from you, and also to hear how you are getting along up there. Times are very hard here. The whole county is in an uproar. The Democrats are just carrying everything just as they please, and are all armed, just ready for fighting, and say that they are going to carry this Presidential election if they have to fight for it. Rev. John R. Lynch, from Congress, came down on the 20th R. Lynch, from Congress, came down on the 20th of October to make a speech for us, and the Democrats would not let him speak. We came very near having a big fight about it. Please to write soon, and let us hear from you all. [The letter closes with some personal ma ters of no public interest.] R. W.

The full name is withheld from prudential considerations. But it is a genuine letter from one colored man to another. Those two men were once fellow slaves of the same master, and knew each other well. What the letter states so simply and briefly spoke a volume for the truth of the outrages of rebel Democrats all through the South. There can be no doubt that "this solid South" will give the vote of its States to Tilden "if they have to fight for it." Intimidation, threats, violence and bloodshed will follow if the negroes attempt to vote for Hayes. If this vote of "the solid South," so secured, elects Tilden, we may as well give up the contest, call the war for the Unio a failure, and submit our necks, white and black, to the yoke of the Southern rebels.

HARBINGERS OF VICTORY. As the 7th instant approaches the chances of Sammy Tilden's election grow beauti fully less. Already the tidings come from New York that the merchants and solid business men of Gotham are aroused with singular unanimity, and, throwing themselves into the breach, will thus svert s national disgrace and carry the Empire State for Hayes and Wheeler. The busi ness men of New York have doubtless been meditating on the trite maxim that it is good to leave well-enough alone, and rather than risk the probable ills which would follow rebel success at the polls they will work with one accord for the succes of the Republican party. The New York merchants exert great influence when they take part in political affairs, and the effec tive service rendered by them in the defeat and discomfiture of the thieving Tammany rings attests the nature of the service which they are now rendering the cause of good government. Outside of the city of New York Hayes will receive sixty thousand majority, and with the New York merchants interested not all of Tilden's ill gotten fortune can save him from defeat. The capitalists of the Empire State have too much at stake to parley in such a contest. Their interests demand that the affairs of the Government be equitably and during the eight years' rule of President Grant they will see to it that his successor is not a political stock-jobber and a railroad wrecker, but an honest man. Let the friends of good government take heart, and enter with renewed vigor in the glorious work to be performed. The 7th of November is fraught with as much moment to posterity as was the surrender of Vicksburg or the capture of Richmond, and while gamblers and thieves may bet their money on "Tilden and reform," the honest men of the land, undismayed, will cast their votes for the soldier Hayes, and elevate him to the head of the nation which, by his prowess upon numerous battle fields, he did so much to sustain against the cohorts of treason. When such patriots as Hon. Wm. M. Evarts, of New York, interest themselves in political affairs, and point out the dangers to be apprehended from the success of sham reformers, it may reasonatly be assumed that the masses will be properly advised, in which event it is utterly impossible for criminals like Tilden to successfully foist themselves upon the public.

SOUTHERN CLAIMS. There is no doubt that Mr. Tilden comes within the category of "those whom the gods would destroy they first made mad." He writes too many letters. His Southern claims letter appears to have done the business for him in the Southern States. Its doctrines are there flatly repudiated by all candid Southern Democrats. Those who, like Governor Porter, of Tennessee, are willing to stultify themselves for the purpose of attaining power tacitly approve them now with the intention of repudiating them when they have gained the ascendancy which they seek. Gov. Porter not long since opposed the payment to the United States the amount due from the Tennessee railways for materials purchased of the Government just after the war, because those companies, he contended, had a good offset in claims against the United States for damages done the railway property during the war. He also insisted that Congress should make all these damages good. Now, however, Governor Porter responds to the sentiments of Governor Tilden's letter regarding the payment of Southern claims as if he were in full sympathy and accord with its professions. We have no doubt that he is quite as sincere in this matter as is Gov. Tilden. With them both any means are justified by the end sought to be gained. Tilden is the friend of rallways, (for fees,) and so are Porter and Hendricks and Pendicton. No matter what they may say now, they will all go for the interests of any monopoly that will pay them when they once gain the power. But to return to this letter-writing business. Mr. Tilden should have remembered the fate of Henry Clay and Gen. Scott, and kept silent. Some of these Southern hotheads of the frank, outspoken kind do not understand the Jesuitism of Porter and Tilden, and are just throwing all their "fat in the fire." As a specimen, take the following from ex-Congressman Sloss'

paper—the Tuscumbia (Als.) Times: "It is a matter of surprise to see Southern politicians and Democrats of the North assert-ing that if Tilden and Hendricks are not elected the just claims due Southern people will not be paid. We are disgusted with such moral cowardice as will lead those who should be friends of the South to thus show the white feather before the 'bloody shirt' banner of claims of loyal citizens of the South for every and buildings belonging to charitable associations which were wantonly destroyed by the Federal army. In thus voting we thought we were advocating what was just, fair and in strict accordance with established principle, believing that private property cannot in any case be taken and used by the public or by the Government without being paid for, and we shall continue to insist that the public or by the Government without being paid for, and we shall continue to insist that not only should the claims of loyal citizens against the Government, for property taken or destroyed during the war by the Federal army, be paid, but that in every case where private property was taken and used by or for the benefit of the Government it should be paid for. It is high time that our people should in sist upon simple justice being done them, at least by those they send to Congress to attend to their interests, and that no backing down from a determination to assert and insist upon our legal or equitable rights should be permitted. Let the candidates for Congress be interrogated as to their intentions as to such interrogated as to their intentions as to such claims, and if either one is not in favor of de-manding and working for our rights, let us vote for those who will."

Mr. Sloss is candid in what he says. There is no mistaking his meaning. He thinks the people of the North should be taxed for the destruction occasioned in putting down the rebellion. That is the plain English of his doctrine. Carry his views out to their logical sequence and we shall be taxed to pay for the slaves emancipated as well. Gov. Vance says that the amendments, having been passed under duress, are of no effect and should be annulled or set aside by the Supreme Court. If Tilder should be elected, with a Congress to match the sentiments of the "solid South," he would be moulded at their will as is clay by the potter. The Memphis Avalanche significantly assures its readers of the genuineness of Tilden's letter, as follows : "The letter of Samuel J. Tilden to Mr. Hewitt, chairman of the National Democratic Committee (in regard to Southern claims,) and which the Avalanche published yesterday, is a genuine letter, and has appeared in the Democratic organs of the West and East. We make this statement because the question has been asked us in regard to the authoricity of the letter."
